Doha: The United Development Company (UDC) emerged as the star performer in Cityscape Qatar 2014 Awards yesterday.

It won the Commercial & Mixed Use Project Award and the Residence Project Award for The Pearl Qatar. Leading real estate professionals, consultants VIPs and guests gathered at Qatar National Convention Centre to celebrate winning real estate developments at the third edition of the Cityscape Awards for Real Estate in Qatar.

The Community & Culture Project Award was scooped by Hamad Medical Corporation and Qatar Foundation for its Qatar Bio Bank

Msheireb Properties won the Retail Project Award for its Msheireb Downtown Doha project

Open only to Qatar-based projects, a large number of entries were drawn from the top real estate development companies and project owners and the winners selected by a panel of international judges.

“The awards were created to recognise outstanding individuals and companies who are leaders in delivering exceptional real estate developments in the fast growing Qatari markets. We hope that the awards will spur on the great efforts of these leaders in the real estate sector and continue to encourage investors to consider projects on offer as we enter our final day,” said Deep Marwaha, Group Director, Cityscape.

Cityscape Qatar 2014 enters its last day on a high, after two days of exhibitions, panel discussions, networking and awards ceremony.

The region’s leading real estate event is expected to attract over 8,000 people over the three days, with about 100 exhibitors coming from over 20 countries. Delegate participation and visitor figures were up significantly from the 2013 edition as a sign of growing momentum in the Qatari real estate market. The Peninsula
